

As a resident of Indiana and a consumer on this State's "no call" list, I strenuously oppose any ruling which would alter or dilute our rules in this law. If banks need to contact a person who does business with them, they can send these contacts by U.S. Mail and not interrupt our quiet use of our home by telephoning.